

Who and what is the Migrant's Council?

The Migrant's Council is an important community board which represents the interests of inhabitants of foreign origin and ethnic German immigrants in our town. The number of board members is set in the constitution of the Migrant's Council. There are nine members entitled to vote who are being elected. There can be four more as consultative members. These will be assigned by decision of the Migrant's Council as representative of other associations. The board members are elected from the migrant population for five years.

The work of the Migrant's Council is complimentary.

What are the responsibilities of the Migrant's Council?

The responsibilities, the rights and the duties of the Migrant's Council of the Hanseatic City of Rostock are laid down in its constitution. It has the special obligation to campaign for the understanding and a peaceful living together of all inhabitants of the Hanseatic City and to develop recommendations and positions in relation to it.

The Migrant's Council has to support the informational, advisory and cultural work of inhabitants with foreign origin as well as ethnic German immigrants in cooperation with the community administration.

Why is taking part in the election so important?

You can support the democratic representation of inhabitants with foreign origin as well as ethnic German im-migrants with a high voter participation.

Therefore, please take part and vote!

You can strengthen with your vote the position of the Migrant's Council and therefore the role of immigrants in our town.

Information about the conduct of elections

All persons eligible to vote will receive the necessary election materials by post with information (ballot, ballot paper) no later than 13/09/2020. It also includes instructions on how to conduct a postal ballot voting. This information is also available in various languages at www.migrantenrat.de.

How will be elected (voting by post)?

The election will be conducted by postal ballot voting.

All eligible voters entered on the electoral roll will be sent the necessary documents (polling card, return envelope, ballot paper, ballot envelope).

Votes are submitted by crossing the box as well as clearly indicating the desired proposals on the ballot paper. This must be done personally and without being observed by third parties.

Persons entitled to vote who cannot read or write or who are physically handicapped to submit their votes alone. They also may use the assistance of another person. In this case the instructions on the ballot paper must be followed.

Persons entitled to vote have 3 votes. These can all be given to one person on the ballot paper or distributed among up to 3 different persons. It is also possible to submit less than 3 votes. However, if more than 3 votes are submitted, then all votes are invalid!

The ballot paper is then placed in the ballot envelope and sealed.

The signed ballot paper is then placed in the ballot envelope together with the postal envelope and sealed. It can be sent free of charge by post to the address printed on the envelope or handed in directly there.

Voting by post (local polling station)

The documents that are sent can be handed over during the above-mentioned opening hours of the voters' register and postal voting office (Industriestr. 8, OT Schmarl // 2. OG rechts) and also during the times specified below.
